Our Pathway to Progress

Complaints

We believe that this school provides an excellent education and that the Headteacher and school personnel work very hard to build positive relationships and have in place clear lines of communication with all parents and others. In so doing complaints are kept to a minimum.

However, we are aware that under section 29 of the Education Act 2002 we must have in place clear procedures to deal with any complaint made against the school or individuals connected with it. We take any complaint seriously and we deal with them professionally following set procedures.

We are aware that under the Education Act 1996 parents have the right to complain directly to the Local Authority about any matter relating to the school's curriculum, any issue relating to the general education that we provide.

We have a duty to publish the complaints policy in the school handbook and on the school website with hard copies available from the school office.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.

Aims

- To deal with any complaint against the school or any individual connected with it by following the correct procedures.
- To deal with all complaints thoroughly and by being open, honest and fair when dealing with the complainant.
- To work with other schools and the Local Authority to share good practice in order to improve this policy.

Responsibility for the Policy and Procedure

Role of the Governing Body

The Governing Body has:

- a duty to have in place a complaints procedure;
- delegated powers and responsibilities to the Headteacher to ensure all school personnel and visitors to the school are aware of and comply with this policy;
- responsibility of annually discussing the complaints log with the Headteacher;
- in place a self-evaluation process to monitor the way complaints are dealt with;
- responsibility of taking into account any local or national decisions that affect the complaints process, and will make any modifications necessary to this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring that the school complies with all equalities legislation;
- nominated a designated Equalities governor to ensure that appropriate action will be taken to deal with all prejudice related incidents or incidents which are a breach of this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring funding is in place to support this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring this policy and all policies are maintained and updated regularly;
- responsibility for ensuring all policies are made available to parents;
- the responsibility of involving the School Council in the development, approval, implementation and review of this policy;
- make effective use of relevant research and information to improve this policy;
- responsibility for the effective implementation, monitoring and evaluation of this policy

Role of the Headteacher

The Headteacher will:

- log all complaints received by the school and records how they were resolved;
- discuss the complaints log every year with the Governing Body;
- ensure all school personnel, pupils and parents are aware of and comply with this policy;
- work closely with the link governor and coordinator;
- provide leadership and vision in respect of equality;
- provide guidance, support and training to all staff;
- make effective use of relevant research and information to improve this policy;
- monitor the effectiveness of this policy;

- annually report to the Governing Body on the success and development of this policy

Complaint Procedures

Stage 1 (Informal Stage)

- Complainant has an informal discussion with the person closely involved with the complainant's cause for concern or with the Headteacher direct.
- If after the discussion the matter is not resolved or if the complainant is not happy with the way that it has been handled then the process moves to the next stage.
- However, every effort should be made to resolve the matter at this stage.

Stage 2 (Formal Stage)

- Once a formal written complaint is received from the complainant then the Headteacher will undertake an investigation and reply in writing to the complainant within 15 days.
- However, if the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome then the complainant should move to the next stage.
- If a formal written complaint is received about the Headteacher from the complainant then the complaint must be sent to the clerk to the governors complaints appeal panel with a written reply being sent to the complainant within 15 days.
- If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome then the complainant should move to the next stage.

Stage 3 (Formal Stage)

- The complainant writes formally to the clerk to the governors complaints appeal panel outlining the reasons why he/she is not happy with the outcomes of the Headteacher's investigation.
- The complainant requests that an appeals panel reviews the complaint.
- An appeals panel meets within 12 to 20 days after receipt of the complainant's letter.
- The complainant may request an investigation by the Local Authority if he/she feels that that the review has not been handled fairly or if it has not been conducted in accordance with the school's complaints procedures.

Formal Complaint to the Local Authority

- Once a request has been received then the Local Authority complaints officer will only investigate whether the school has followed correct procedures in dealing with complaints but will not investigate the complainant's original complaint.

- After the investigation the Complaints Officer will write formerly to the complainant.
- If the result is that the school did not follow correct procedures then the complaint will be referred back to the Chair of the Governing Body.
- If the result is that the school dealt with the complaint correctly then the Local Authority cannot make the school change its decision.
- The complainant may now wish to lodge an appeal with the Secretary of State for Education or with the Local Government Ombudsman.

Complaints regarding the Curriculum and General Educational Provision

All curriculum and general educational provision complaints will be dealt with by the Local Authority in line with their set complaints procedures.

Raising Awareness of this Policy

We will raise awareness of this policy via:

- the School Handbook/Prospectus
- the school website
- the Staff Handbook
- meetings with parents such as introductory, transition, parent-teacher consultations and periodic curriculum workshops
- school events
- meetings with school personnel
- communications with home such as weekly newsletters and of end of half term newsletters
- reports such annual report to parents and Headteacher reports to the Governing Body
- information displays in the main school entrance

Training

All school personnel will:

- have equal chances of training, career development and promotion
- receive training on this policy on induction
- receive periodic training so that they are kept up to date with new information
- receive equal opportunities training on induction in order to improve their understanding of the Equality Act 2010 and its implications

Equality Impact Assessment

Under the Equality Act 2010 we have a duty not to discriminate against people on the basis of their age, disability, gender, gender identity, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

This policy has been equality impact assessed and we believe that it is in line with the Equality Act 2010 as it is fair, it does not prioritise or disadvantage any pupil and it helps to promote equality at this school.

Monitoring the Effectiveness of the Policy

The practical application of this policy will be reviewed annually or when the need arises by the coordinator, the Headteacher and the nominated governor.

A statement of the policy's effectiveness and the necessary recommendations for improvement will be presented to the Governing Body for further discussion and endorsement. (See Policy Evaluation)
